$250-Million Project For Oil Sands

Caterpillars Play Havor With Leaves

HYLO—The tent caterpillars are even more numerous this year than they were last and have played havoc will all the fine green trees. The stark grey limbs give a wasteful and desolate appearance to the countryside.

Although these trees are not commercially grown they do add beauty as well as safety for wild life and hinder erosion. Probably many trees will be ruined completely and it is a pity no conservation program is set up for this.

Boys Build Raft For Flood Travel

HYLO — The bridge at MacDonald's farm has been washed out completely during the recent rain storm.

Part of the land was also flooded and in order to travel back and forth the boys had to build a raft. It is quite a wonderful sight to see the horses and young colts swim back and forth.

CONVERTS SEA WATER—A couple of Virgin Islands youngsters find there's plenty of fun in a big fresh water supply if you have hose connections. The supply comes from that new 275,000-gallon-a-day salt water conversion plant in St. Thomas, a job put up by Aqua-Chem, Inc., Waukesha, Wis. Business men there say the water supply will trigger new growth in the islands' economy.

Alberta Conservation Board Plans To Produce 100,000 Barrels Daily

Plans are now being considered by the Alberta Oil and Gas Conservation Board for a $250,000,000 project to produce 100,000 barrels daily of liquid hydrocarbons from the Athabasca oil sands by the late 1960s.

The board, headed by Dr. G. Govier, is hearing an application by Great aCnadian Oil Sands Ltd. to develop commercially the rich oil sands.

Sun Oil, Canadian Oil and Abasand Oil have agreements with Great Canadian to buy the 31,500 barrels per day which would be produced.

Provincial government's attitude toward the commercial develop- of the Athabasca oil sands has "softened," a reliable government source said recently and there is a strong possibility that the oil and gas conservation board will aprove both applications now before it.

The implications and background of the porposals are considered in detail in a special feature in this week's Alberta Country Life.

Election Round-up

Alberta farmers should note the Alberta Country Life election round-up featured on the front page of this week's Country Life. As an additional services, pictures of candidates from the four major parties in your constituency will be found in this issue as the last in the "Meet Your Candidates" series.

Floods, Washouts May Cause Light Voting In This District

If the rain continues through this weekend, the politicians won't have many votes to count on from the Bonnyville, Cold Lake and Lac la Biche areas on June 18. Floods and washouts have made the roads almost totally impassable, and no relief is in sight in the near future.

"Pretty rugged," was the curt comment of an Alberta Department of Highways official when questioned about road conditions in these areas.

"We have repaired certain ones, but they wash out faster than we can get to them," he explained. "If it doesn't stop raining, it may be a month before we can get into the district to work. We'll probably get in within a week, though," he went on to say.

Deputy Minister of Highways McManus announced that plans are being made for finishing the paving of good highways to Lac La Biche and Cold Lake, but that no exact dates have been set .

"A road does not have to be paved to be good," he pointed out.

Floyd McMillan Named Lions Club President

The Lac La Biche Lions Club recently elected a new executive for the 1962-63 term. The positions filled were as follows:

Past-president, Lion H. Senetza; president, Lion John Hackman; first vice-president, Lion Floyd McMillan; second vice-president, Lion Willie Hamilton; third vice-president, Lion Michael Hamar; secretary-treasurer, Lion Bob Myhalyk; tailtwister and liontamer, Lion Bill Tarrabain.

Bayview

The fine, sunny Farmers' Day brought many persons to the Bayview resort.

Const. Arthur Varin recently visited his parents here.

L. Gravelle of Edmonton was a recent guest of Mr. Brochage.

Hazel Bjorgen Feted At Party

WANDERING RIVER — A surprise birthday party was held honoring Miss Hazel Bjorgen on her 17th birthday.

Approximately 30 guests were in attendance, spending the evening dancing to records. Many gifts, as well as donations were received, after which the birthday cake, made by Mrs. Sundlie, was cut and refreshments served.

Five Hundred Sheep Marooned On 2-Acre Island At Grassland

GRASSLAND — After the recent rains, the flooded condition of Pine Creek has caused a considerable amount of damage. Dick Wunder, owner of a sheep ranch on the banks of the creek, reports the loss of several sheep.

In addition, about 500 sheep have been marooned on an island about two acres in extent. After three days the sheep are now without feed. Efforts are being made to rescue the sheep by boat.

Contact was made on Thursday of last week with the game branch in Athabasca in order to dynamite several beaver dams down stream, but by Saturday morning they had failed to put in an appearance. Meanwhile, the forestry at Lac la Biche is standing by with offers of help.

Mr. and Mrs. Wunder, while riding on a Caterpillar tractor, had a narrow escape when the tractor hit a hole in the road and submerged, with only the top of the cab above water. Both managed to scramble to safety.

Andrew Bluda also reports the loss of several calves owing to the floods. He states the water is still rising.

THE Homemaker

District Home Economist, Westlock
By Bertha M. McCutcheon

Today's trend, in rural living particularly, seems to point to the kitchen as the gathering place of family and friends, says Miss Shirley Wood, Home Designing Specialist, Alberta Department of Agriculture. The family room, incorporated into the kitchen area wherever possible, is made comfortable by additional coating for dining and lounging. To spend the greater part of the day in a room warm with interest and character is very agreeable, so it is essential that imagination should be used in the choice of kitchen cabinets if they are to compete in appearance with the expensive kitchen appliances now appearing in most rural homes.

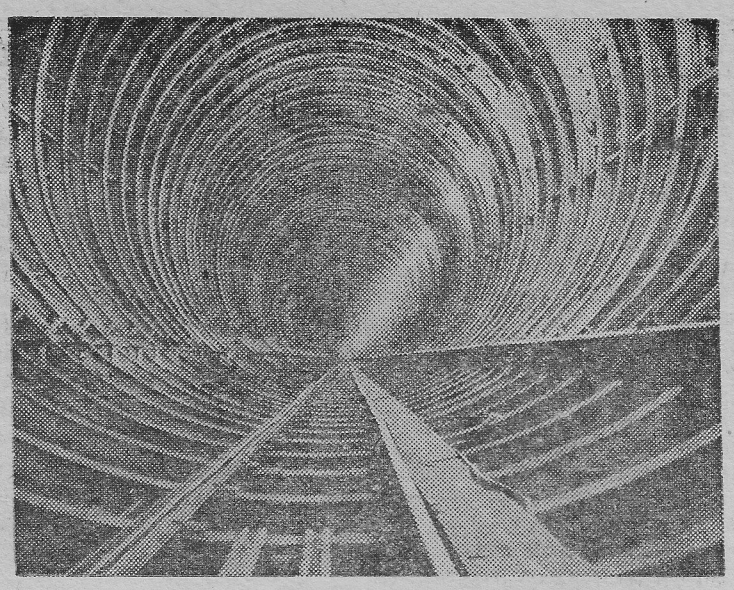
B. McCutcheon

Do-it-yourself methods of building cabinets are always to be recommended, but quality materials and adequate time and imagination must be contributed as well. Wood does seem to be the most easily handled material, but whether it is intended to have painted cabinets or a natural finish, choose materials carefully. If planning a painted surface, fir core poplar-ply is the best buy, it gives a grain free smooth surface without the hours of sanding needed when fir ply is used. Another material to consider is the pre-finished fir-core poplar ply. A new product manufactured in Calgary, this is available in seven different finishes. It is reasonable in price (compared to unfinished Ribbon Philipine Mahogany) and has a relatively good finished appearance. An estimate of finishing plywood with natural finish is four cents per square foot per coat.

The standard varnish finishes continue to be used in the satin finish but there is a trend toward the use of wax stains. These stains give a quality finish with a dull lustre. Be careful to apply evenly when using this product. A natural finish on a material which has innate beauty contributes a great deal of character to any installation, says Miss Wood.

Prospective builders who live near Edmonton are fortunate in that they may visit a plywood showroom in this city. An extensive range of these materials is displayed and will provide a great deal of inspiration in your planning. These choices, available to the buyer range from the rotary mahogany at $12.75 per 4x8 sheet through birch, knotty pine and cherry at $24.00 per 4x8 sheet to the luxury woods such as gumwood and black walnut at $35.000 per 4x8 sheet .

A printed listing of the plywoods available and their approximate prices is available from the District Home Economist's office in Westlock.



MOLE'S TUNNEL—A portion of one of the five river diversion tunnels at the South Saskatchewan River dam is shown here. Speeding construction is a power-driven "Mole" whose rotary cutter chews out a 25-foot tunnel, leaving it ready for lining with steel and concrete. Heated air was piped in to allow tunneling to continue throughout the winter.

Prime Minister Receives Rousing Welcome To Athabasca Constituency

On May 31 the town of Westlock went 'all out' in its welcome to the prime minister of Canada, the right honorable John G. Diefenbaker.

A cavalcade of cars met Mr. Diefenbaker, his wife and party about a mile out of town on Highway No. 18, and travelled down a flag bedecked route to the Community Hall. Though much concern was felt in regards to the weather, we were favored, for as the Prime Minister stepped from his car to greet hundreds of people surrounding the hall, the sun shone in all its glory.

The prime minister and his party entered a capacity filled hall to the rousing welcome of hundreds of people and a band of pipers.

After the mayor's address of welcome in which he stated that this was the first time in the history of Westlock that the town had been honored by a visit from a Canadian Prime Minister, Mrs. Diefenbaker was presented with a bouquet of flowers by Shirley Jeack, and after she gave a few chosen words of thanks, Dr. Hugh Horner PC Candidate for Jasper-Edson, welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Diefenbaker on behalf of his Constituency also.

The prime minister was then introduced by Mr. Jack Bigg, Progressive Conservative Candidate for Athabasca Constituency.

The prime minister spoke mainly of Agriculture and Canadianism, and throughout his speech was interrupted by tremendous applause from an enthusiastic crowd.

Following the reception in the Westlock Memorial Hall, Mr. Diefenbaker visited the school, where twelve hundred students with hearty cheers and waving flags gave him an enthusiastic welcome. Mr. and Mrs. Diefenbaker were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bigg, Mr. Earle McDonald and Mr. Ward Superintendents of Schools, and the members of the Westlock School Board. Mr. R. Staples, Principal of the High School and Mr. K. Nixon, Principal of the Elementary School welcomed them.

Hazel and Hester Dobyanski presented Mrs. Diefenbaker with flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Diefenbaker spent some time visiting and shaking hands with the students.

The Westlock Band under the direction of Mr. Jerry Bryant played God Save the Queen.

Mr. Staples introduced the Prime Minister, who thanked them for their enthusiastic welcome and spoke to them of his teaching days. He told them that as he looked at such a fine group of young Canadians that he was confident they would always hold the flag of their country high.

From the excellent attention, it was clearly seen that the pupils of the Westlock School were greatly impressed with the Prime Minister of Canada.

On leaving the town, Mr. Diefenbaker and his party drove by the Senior Citizens' Home on route to the Namao Airport, where the Prime Minister left for Red Deer, where he was scheduled to speak in the evening.

It was noted that many towns in the Athabasca Constituency and from the Jasper-Edson Constituency were represented at the rally, each wearing their identification. The crowd in attendance was estimated from 2500 to 3,000 people.

Much credit is due to those who gave so freely of their time to make this occasion such a success, as many worked long hours decorating the hall and streets.

Hurried Independence Embarrasses Australia

The Australian High Commissioner to Canada, David Hay, said in Edmonton pressure to speed up independence for underdeveloped nations has put Australia in a dilemma.

He told the Men's Canadian Club there is constant pressure in the United Nations to hurry independence. But he said it takes time to build up a firm economic, educational and political base in a country.

Though the way has not been easy and many obstacles have had to be overcome, Gene Paul Plamondon of Plamondon and Fort Smith is now classed as a professional singer. Recently he had an appointment to make some records and sing in Nashville Tenn. He sang at the Grand -Ole Opray-Theatre in Nashville Tenn.

After the performance he had an appointment to meet the famous western singer, Hank Snow. In about a month's time Gene expects to be called to Montreal on a recording session for the RCA Victor.

Gene Paul and his wife are spening their time in Plamondon between his recording sessions, as Plamondon is his home town. He was born in Plamondon and received his early education here.

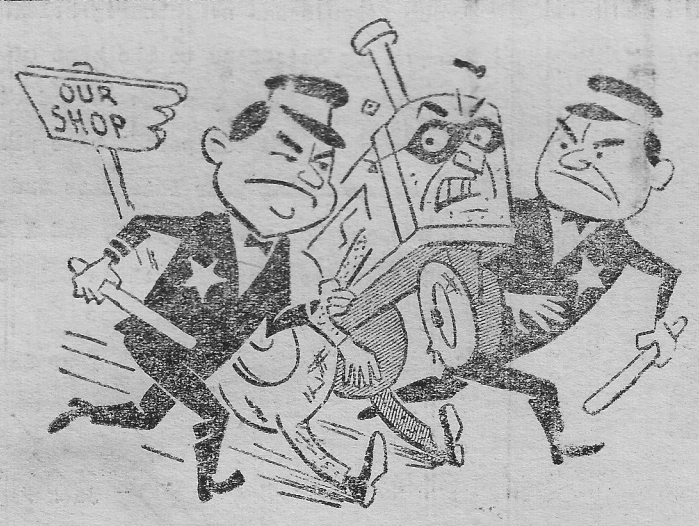
ARREST THIS LOST-TIME THUG!



They've put the finger on a culprit at your farm . . . a thief who's literally picking your pockets—your tractor.

Proof? What more do you need than this—authoritative tests by impartial engineers at the University of Nebraska proved beyond doubt that during a year's work a tractor can lose as much as 20 per cent of its power. Such power loss means extra hours in the field to do the same work . . . gallons of fuel pouring out the exhaust. And most tragic—farmer-owners were not aware of this power loss.

Your tractor, too, needs a check-over. Perhaps only a tune-up is required. Regardless . . . in our shop, only the necessary work will be done; our skilled mechanics will do the work quickly . . . efficiently . . . and at the lowest possible cost. Dear Electors:

During the past weeks, in travelling our constituency, I have personally met many of you. However, with 63,000 square miles to cover, it has not been possible to meet each of you personally.

I have visited each and every area, have spent the days travelling and discussing problems with you and your friends and neighbours; holding meetings, and answering questions to the best of my ability.

I have put before you the record of the Diefenbaker Government, and the part I have played, on your behalf, in representing your interests and wishes.

I now ask for your support, and I do so believing that I have worked hard for those things which are best for you and best for Canada.

Hylo Ratepayers Oppose Centralization Of Pupils

HYLO—Nearly all the community turned out at the ratepayers meeting of the Hylo Consolidated School District No. 4101 which was held on Thursday evening, June 7, in the Hylo school.

Present were E. A. Torgunrud, superintendent of schools; P. Benuik, sub-divisional trustee; A. Clark and J. Williams, divisional board members.

Mr. Benuik chaired the meeting and spoke on the possibility of centralizing Hylo school children into the Lac la Biche school this coming fall term. He explained that the total cost of operating the school is approximately $18,000 and by centralizing there would be a saving of some $11,000. In summing up he disclosed that their program is so designed that it will be centralized sooner or later.

Superintendent Torgunrud enlightened the ratepayers on the educational foundation program, the various grants that are paid by the government, teachers' salaries and bus transportation. His informative speech was most impartial and he listened attentively to all points and questions brought up, answering them amiably. Mr. Clark and Mr. Williams also answered a number of questions during the evening.

The ratepayers strongly opposed the centralization movement and pointed out that it would be a waste of money to close down the already well-established school which they had helped build. Secondly, the bus drive would be far too long and strenuous for the young children, thus hindering their learning from too great fatigue. It was brought to light that many children would have to travel 40 miles, forcing them to be up much too early. After a lengthy discussion a vote by ballot was taken with 74 against centralizing to Lac la Biche and only four were for it.

In closing the meeting Mr. Benuik said they were glad to know the result of the ratepayers' discussions and would be able to proceed with their education program accordingly.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir: Premier Manning was his usual bombastic best in addressing a meeting in the Memorial Hall in support of the Social Credit candidate for the federal riding of Athabasca. With impressive gestures and eloquent speech he castigated the financial policies of opposition leaders, simplified his concept, in a four-figured tabulation of all things done wrong by the former governments of Canada since the Whites took over from the noble Red man.

Promulgated solutions, financial, international and domestic, that would be a cure-all for depressions, the high cost of living, high government spending with particular reference to federal matters were offered. However, he neglected to mention the mounting costs of home government and the ever-increasing number of civic employees who wear expensive government uniforms.

The speaker severely condemned Prime Minister Diefenbaker's devaluation of the Canadian dollar and pointed out in no uncertain terms how the federal government is stripping Alberta citizens under income tax agreements and stated in round figures the small amounts returned as Alberta's share.

These quotations woke me up to the tremendous difference between the speaker's statement and that of my own conservative bible of statistics that is available for all the public.

There was no mention of the amounts paid out to Albertans such as family allowances, welfare, hospital grants, winter work projects, public buildings, prairie farm assistance, acreage payments, unemployment insurance, road grants and the Grimshaw railway project which is one of Mr. Manning's own favored sites for development.

Hospital grants, to mention only one single item in 62-63, will amuont to some 87 million dollars. Road municipal and debenture issues for the cities and towns, none of which have the free flowing oil wells to bolster their finances. Rural users of electricity know well the heavy contributions they are mortgaged for, to enjoy its use in their homes.

I sat in open-mouthed astonishment at the easy solution of national, international and domestic situations, that made me wonder at the stupidity of the rest of Canada in not adopting Social Credit principles or policies. Surely 27 years is sufficient time to get those brilliant ideas across to the voting public.

If Premier Manning actually believes in his theories, and is convinced of their merits, why does he consistently refuse to lead his party in an all-out drive to capture the cita- grants will have used up another 7 million dollars.

I can follow Mr. Alosio's rather inflated praise of his leader's ability but I find it quite different to believe that our provincial premier has the qualities to establish himself as the financial expert in matters of federal and international finance.

True, we are said to be a debt-free province. Perhaps we are if we disclaim any responsibility in del at Ottawa? Wolfe accomplished the feat with a handful of helpers. With over 90 per cent of Alberta members, coupled with their supporters, the job should be comparatively easy.

To quote Mr. Alosio, "There is but one Manning in Canada." If that is true, then it is his bounden duty to relinquish his present security and dual positions and lead us out of the quagmire of debt and ever-mounting interest that he so dramatically and volubly describes as facing the dark, dismal future of all Canadians.

Tommy Douglas, the second most popular provincial premier, also has a colorful set of principles and another easy way to prosperity. Nor did he hesitate to grasp his opportunity and without a backward look or regret for the thousands of dollars lost in his government's experiment in operating private industry, launched with vim and vigor his political craft in federal waters.

I predict his boldness and sacrifice of political security will gain him far more support in the feneral field, than all the weight of our provincial ministers in support of candidates in the federal field.

—Henry T. Thompson.

Redwater Pays Tribute To 27 Grads

Miss Christine Hanington Presents Valedictory Address At Exercises

REDWATER — The mystery and magical beauty of the Orient was the theme of the setting for the annual spring graduation exercises for 27 graduands of Redwater High School held in the High School Auditorium Friday, June 1.

The program began with an address of welcome by Alex Wood, president of the Students' Union. Following a Grand March of the graduands, Harry Klufas, principal of the high school, introduced each graduand who then received a diploma which was presented by Alex Konesawich.

I. Goresky, superintendent of schools for the county of Thorhild, was guest speaker on this occasion. He stressed the importance of speech and verbal communication and its contribution to sound mental health. The ability to express oneself is the best outlet for frustrations and tensions in the strained society in which we live. Unless ideas are expressed they are useless, he said.

The valedictory address was given by Miss Christine Hanington. Alex Wood then introduced the teachers to the assembled parents and friends. The teachers were asked to sign the graduands' year books.

The high school chorus under the direction of Mrs. O. Pyrch then sang "Alma Mater" and "Once to Every Man", accompanied by Miss Joan Hunchak at the piano. Complimenting the Oriental theme of the evening, a Japanese Folk Dance was performed by Patsy and Joy Kimura.

The following trophies were presented as special awards:

For grade 10 academic achievement, donated by Acme Construction, George Chalmers; for grade 11 academic achievement, donated by Peter Chaba, Redwater Insurance, Miss Elaine Yakimets; for boys' sportmanship, donated by Tartan Transport, Allan Trenchie; for girls' sportmanship, donated by Charlie Nelkin, Miss Virginia Malowney; Major executive award, donated by Sparkle Dairy, Alex Wood; Minor executive award, donated by Marshall-Wells, Miss Pat Chaba; Minor executive award, donated by Superior Motors, Edward Kuzik;

Further annual awards pending results of the departmental examinations will be: an award of a matched pen and pencil set to each student in grade 9 who achieves an H standing.

A $50 scholarship for the grade 12 student achieving the highest marks, presented by the Home and School Association.

A $50 scholarship for the highest marks achieved by a student entering the faculty of education, presented by Malowney's Garage.

Harry Klufas then presented a gift to Miss Ilona Hunchak on be half of the High School staff for her services as secretary in the high school ofifce during the year.

A buffet lunch prepared and served by the ladies of the Home and School Association was then enjoyed.

An evening of dancing was climaxed with the presentation of graduation pins to the following students: Christine Hanington, Victor Horbal, Victor Kotyk, Sharon Wozney, Patricia Chaba, Victor Pasay, William Malowney, Dianne Trenchie, Eleanor Devitt, Ernest Melnyk, Ernest Turchanski, Audrey Petruk, Sylvia Chaba, Allan Trenchie, Boris Wozimerski, Edward Kuzik, Adele Couturier, Raymond Farion, Henry Yarmola, Emil Michaluk, Judy Delorma, Kenneth Wacowich, Richard Purschke, Tony Kraychy, Josephine Sirotski, Fred Hrynchuk, James Robertson.

Mr., Mrs. Tillapaugh Celebrate 60th Wedding Anniversary

VEGREVILLE — Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tillapaugh of Vegreville held open house at their home recently on the occasion of their diamond wedding anniversary. A family dinner served at the Elks Hall by the Royal Purple was attended by 82 members of their family, one week previous.

There are six sons and two daughters, Earl of Vegreville, William Virgil and Clair of Edmonton, Clyde of Goose Lake and Frank of London, Ontario. There are 32 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. Jack has the pleasure of having his three sisters and two brothers and their families with him also. Mrs. Bessie Long, Irma, Mrs. Mary McMullen, Vegreville, Mrs. Edna Alhstrom, Two Hills, Dan of Calgary and Loyal of Vegreville.

Mr. and Mrs. Tillapaugh were maried May 28, 1902 in Decorah, Iowa, came to Vegreville in May, 1906 and lived in the Royal Park and Vegreville districts. They homesteaded at Therien, returning to Vegreville where Jack worked in the flour mill and power plant. During the last 20 years before his retirement he was with the Town of Vegreville.

A host of friends called at their home to offer congratulations, stayed and visited with the couple and enjoyed tea served by the women of the Vegreville WI.

Over Eighty And Shingling

ALLANDALE — The community is happy that these two healthy and able men over 80 years young are so active and happy in working. Mr. William Armstrong and Mr. Herb Simmons of Vermilion shingled the Armstrong home recently and before had been working at the Simmons home. Herb is a noted carpenter and is very happy doing that work, and helping others. He is the carpenter who built the late Mr. Edward's barn now owned by the Herb McPhee family.

Texas Plays Hookey

ALLANDALE — Texas was gone. Gerald Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Martin, had gone out to tend his Shetland last Sunday morning and worried, with tear filled eyes, he came in, "Texas is gone, and he took the fence post with him".

Jimmy tracked him to Jack Crosses' corner, and later Bruce Baldwin tracked him to Jack's pasture on the river, but lost trace there. Monday evening Jimmy found Texas in the pasture, near the river in the brush, wound so tightly he could hardly move; he had dragged the post all the way.

Needless to say, there was a happy family when Texas returned home.

Little Leaguers Plan Tournament

TWO HILLS — Eight teams will be competing at the Two Hills baseball park on Sunday, June 17. The first games will begin at 1:00 p.m. and everyone is requested to support the future stars.

Any team wishing to participate is asked to contact either president John F. Elko or secretary Mike Kindrakt of the Minor Baseball League.

Earl Giebelhaus Honored At Guelph Graduation Exercises

HOLDEN — It was proud day for Mr. and Mrs. John A. Giebelhaus and the residents of Holden and district as they watched their son, Earl Giebelhaus graduate from the Veteranarian College in Guelph, Ont.

Mr. Giebelhaus has received many awards and scholarships through school beginning with a Cadet scholarship after High School graduation in 1957. In addition to this he has received an annual scholarship through the school for an outstanding scholastic performance.

The community will probably be seeing a lot of Earl in the future as he has set up his practice in Vermilion.

The best of success to Earl Giebelhaus, in his new career is the wish of the people of Holden.

Three Attempts Made To Enter; Would-be Thieves Succeed Twice

MUNDARE — Recently the Mundare Garage, owned by Mike Novakowski of Mundare, experienced three breakins. A window adjoining the front door was broken, in an attempt to gain entry into the premises by opening the door from the inside through the window. This attempt failed since entry of this sort is impossible.

Two nights later another attempt was made. The burglers removed the wooden slats on a side window and climbed through. They stole a few dollars in coins, chocolates, and some soft drinks.

A few nights later another entry was made by removing a window. Some gun ammunition and other miscellaneous items were taken.

No clues to the identity of the thieves were evident.

Patricia Kneen To Teach Eskimos

MARWAYNE — Patricia Kneen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Kneen, is one of four university students who have volunteered for work among the Indians and Eskimos, being posted to Inuvik. Patricia, third year education, has already spent some time at Frobisher Bay teaching the Eskimos before returning to university for her third year.

This student volunteer service scheme was started in 1961 and a number of students will be selected each year to participate. They will work with the Northern Affairs Offices in the department programs. The department recognizes the value of direct contact between single students and groups of Indians and Eskimos. Their experiences, combined with their studies, would make them valuable additions to northern staff in the future.

Recipe Of The Week

To give an old faithful a new twist for unexpected company or simply for a pleasant change try this delightfully simple recipe for veal cutlets in a tangy sauce. The secret to this recipe is to cut your cutlets very thin. It is usually necessary to take a sharp knife and gently cut an ordinary cutlet in half. Don't panic if it looks too thin. As long as it will hold together it is just right. Bread each cutlet in the regular manner, dipping first in seasoned, beaten egg and then rolling in finely ground salted cracker crumbs. Brown until golden brown in cooking oil. Add the following sauce and simmer gently until meat is tender.

TANGY SAUCE

2 tbsp. vinegar

The speedometer's been set back,
But you can't tell just how far.

Soil Researcher Advises On Care, Cure For Lawns

Many requests for information dealing with the care and maintenance of lawns have been received at the Soil Research Sub-Station this spring.

A patchiness has developed in many of the lawns throughout the Vegreville district. This patchiness is probably due initially to a fungas disease, but secondary infestations may have developed.

The treatment for the fungus is the application of a mixture of ⅔ calomel and ⅓ bichloride of mercury, at the rate of 3 ounces per 1,000 square feet. If the fungus is snow mold, this treatment need only be applied in the late fall. However, if it should be one of the other fungus diseases, the application should be made in the summer. Since the treatment is not a very expensive one, a summer application followed by a late fall application should probably be used. An alternate treatment is the application of Semesan applied at the rate of 2 pounds per 6,000 square feet.

Where insects such as earthworms, grubs and ants are causing a lawn problem, the following mixture should be applied and watered in: 5 pounds of arsenate of lead per 1,000 square feet. Where the lawn area is reasonably small and the owner is anxious to maintain a particularly attractive lawn, the treatment for both the fungus disease and insect pests might well be applied. The treatment for insect pests is extremely toxic and the material should be kept out of reach of children or animals and thoroughly watered into the lawn immeditely after application.

Anyone interested in an excellent source of information regarding lawns should write to the Information Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, Ontario, requesting Publication No. 1065, "The construction and care of lawns". This publication is free of charge and contains the most up to date information available. In recommending this bulletin, it should be pointed out that:

(1) The recommendations regarding the kind of grass to seed are more suited to Eastern Canada than to the Vegreville district. While creeping Red Fescue is shown in eighth position in this bulletin, it is probably the best grass for general lawn seeding in the Vegreville area.

(2) The fertilization and liming sections are also more suited to Eastern than Western conditions. We recommend 16-20-0 or Ammonium Nitrate at from 5-10 pounds per 1,000 square feet.
